

@JP MUSIC STUDIO Attendance and Cancellation Policy:

All lessons of your Package / Course must be scheduled and paid before the first lesson of the Course. Payment instructions will be emailed to you during at the date of enrollment.

Discounted Monthly Packages starting from the date of your first lesson and must be completed up to the end of the enrollment period. If you not able to keep up weekly commitment, your lessons must be scheduled and paid as single private lessons 'a la carte.

24-hour notice is to be made for all changes students wish to make in their schedule. Please keep in mind - lessons cancelled same day (by any reason) are non-refundable and will not be rescheduled.

For One Month Course you have one make up lesson given if you reschedule 24hr prior the lesson date. For 3 Month Course you will have only 2 make up lessons allowed during the enrollment plan.

Because teacher's time is incredibly valuable and your music lesson time is reserved especially for you, we ask for advance notice of all cancellations.

Make up lessons must be scheduled within the month of the missed lesson plan, and are subject to the availability of your instructor: If the teacher has NO make up lesson availability, your lesson may be given in Recorded Video format.

If the teacher DOES offer you with an available make up time - it is your responsibility to either make it work, or lose that lesson.

Also make up lessons might be given in person or in online or recorded video format at your convenience.

Students may withdraw from monthly subscription by submitting a written request juliana.polanskaya@gmail.com ONE WEEK prior to last lesson of your Course renewal date.

I look forward to working with you and hope we will enjoy a long-lasting relationship!
